CHRISTMAS PASTORAL LETTER OF HIS
BEATITUDE SVIATOSLAV

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men (Lk 2:14)

Christ is born! Glorify Him!

Beloved in Christ!

Icon – Denis Tymchyshyn ↑

Today we share with you a great joy that was first received and shared by nameless shepherds of Bethlehem, who outdoors in an open field watched over their flock in the middle of the night. As described by the evangelist Luke, when an angel of the Lord appeared to them, at first, they were filled with fear. But the angel spoke to them: “Fear not, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord” (Lk 2:10-11). And then, when the shepherds heard the angelic choirs sing, “Glory to God in the highest,” they said to one another: “Let us go over to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us” (Lk 2: 15). And they went, they found Mary and Joseph with the Child, and, having given them due reverence, went out and told others about Jesus.

The good news of Christmas is a feast of trust—not only of trust shared among us, human beings, but, above all, of God’s trust in humankind. We often speak of our faith in God, but rarely do we make note of God’s good will towards us, His faith and trust in us. The Lord entrusted the first good news about the birth of the Divine Child to simple shepherds, and then He shared the Good News of the Gospel with the myrrh-bearing women, with fishermen and tax-collectors—with simple and largely unknown people.

In Christ’s Nativity, the Heavenly Father entrusts His Only-begotten Son to humanity, and God becomes man! The angelic choir proclaiming “peace on earth to men of good will” speaks to the fact that God sees man as worthy of his trust and favour, preference and good will (which is how we literally translate the Greek term, eudokia). He sees us as good and believes in us. He sees us not only as we are today, with all our weaknesses and sinfulness, our poverty and perplexity. The Son of God sees in us His Image. In His incarnation, He takes on our human nature and teaches us to see Him, the Saviour of the world, in a small child. Seeing us as people of His good will, He sees us as those who we can become by the power of His grace just as loving parents see in their child a talented future writer or artist, a good mother or tender and responsible father, the leader of a people or their mighty protector.

In this Christmas mystery, the figure of the Theotokos personifies the trust that we humans should foster towards our Creator and Saviour, in response to God’s trust in us. The Mother of God, who holds in her arms the tiny Jesus in a cold stable, teaches us that we can and must trust God and our neighbour, since the Lord loved us first and entrusted Himself to us. In receiving the word of the archangel, she gives God space in her own body, gives Him her humanity—her human nature. Then St. Joseph, the guardian of Jesus and His Mother, having learned that Mary is pregnant, at first thinks of quietly releasing her. But, when the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said: “Joseph, son of David, do not fear to take Mary as your wife, for that which is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit" (Mt 1:20), he believed, entrusted himself to God, and did everything as the angel commanded, justifying the Lord's trust in him.

We live in a world where trust is not merely wounded, but under constant attack. A great crisis of trust is felt in different spheres of social and even church life. Through new communication technologies, the manipulation of truth, which has always existed throughout human history, today is carried with lightning speed all over the globe. We no longer know what to believe and whom to trust. Our understanding is permeated with the conviction that in the world there is no truth and no justice, and that at every step there is only deception, falsehood, and duplicity.

This dramatic situation is illustrated in the icon of the Nativity. The evil spirit, depicted in the form of an elderly man dressed in sheepskin, tempts Joseph, seeking to give rise to doubt in him regarding the Child and His Mother. This should surprise no one, for the devil, as the father of lies (see Jn 8:44) at every step seeks to sow mistrust and doubt regarding God's good will towards us, and fosters interpersonal conflict at all levels, in personal, family, and community life. The current pandemic has further increased this crisis of trust. Given that the virus hides inside a person, the other for me becomes a potential source of illness, and even death. This introduces into human relations elements of suspicion, fear, and escape.

Our attitude towards social and government institutions is also marked by mistrust. Various conspiracy allegations regarding the safety of the coronavirus vaccine augment a mistrust of authority, that is already prevalent in our society, and bring out in our fellow citizens even greater confusion and fear for the future. People don't believe the government and other institutions called to care for the common good and for social health services, as is their responsibility. Possibly, because of the history of the 20th century, post-Soviet societies have a greater tendency, than do other parts of the world, to disbelieve government institutions, and thus easily become susceptible to all sorts of manipulation and propaganda. Similarly, in the politically polarized countries of the Western world, the spreading of fear and mistrust is also utilized as an instrument of political warfare. However, it is important to remember that when we adopt a principle of "I don't believe anyone," we always play into someone else's hands, someone exploits our disappointment for their own purposes. Mistrust destroys human relations at all levels. Mistrust destroys the family, society, a people, and nation!

In response to our present-day temptations regarding mistrust, the Lord Himself comes in order to reveal the truth and embrace us with His trust. On the vigil of the Nativity, we sing: "You have shone forth from a Virgin, O Christ, rational Sun of Righteousness. And a star showed You, Whom nothing can contain, contained in a cave. You led Magi to worship You and along with them we magnify You: Glory to You, O Giver of Life" (Vespers Troparion). To celebrate Christ's Nativity is to trust the Divine Child who conquers death and, by accepting human life, brings the gift of His Divine Life. Christmas is not some devotional tale but a unique event in history, which bears witness to the Lord's trust in humankind. God believes in His creation. He believes in us more than we believe in ourselves.

Through faith in God, in His birth among us, let us restore our trust in a humanity that searches for Him! Let us be people of God's favour and let us learn to place our favour in others—to see in them their good characteristics, gifts and talents, abilities, and elevated spirit. Although today the circumstances of a spreading virus at times require us to cover with protective masks our mouths and nostrils, but in God's name, let us not close off our hearts to others! Let others see joy, love, and goodness in our eyes! Indeed, in the midst of the challenges and trials of the pandemic, let us be heralds of Divine good will.

My wish is that, following the example of the Holy Family, our families be a place of mutual respect, love, and trust. I especially ask you, beloved parents, to foster a spirit of trust in your children, so that, when they encounter the challenges of this world, they know that they can always count both on you and on our Lord God, who entrusted them into your care. At various stages of your children's growth, cultivate and build trust and mutual respect in joy, love, and patience. Be for them their first teachers of profound faith, an example of fervent prayer, encourage them to serve their neighbour at an early age.

Give the greatest of attention to the time of transition from childhood to youth, take care that your children know how to distinguish between the false and the authentic, between divine truth and diabolical falsehood. May your offspring know that not only you believe in them and are able to see their future in realized talents and divine gifts, developed in their souls, but that our Lord God Himself believes in them and calls on them to do His good works in the world.

And so, let us celebrate Christmas together! Wherever we may be, through mutual trust let us create today our own Bethlehem! Those who celebrate in their family circle—with sincere joy. Those who are compelled to be far from your loved ones—with a sense of spiritual unity. Those who are able to come to church—with a profound experience of the feast's solemnity and with love for Christ who gives Himself to us as spiritual food as a sign that He believes in us. Those who participate in divine services online—with a blessed longing for our brothers and sisters in Christ. Let each of us share our Christmas joy with one another—any way we can! And may the traditional Ukrainian carol resound throughout.

Dear brothers and sisters! This festive day I express to you my trust and faith, that you yourselves intuitively sense how to properly greet the newborn Saviour, and know how to share the joy of this encounter with those at your side. With Christ's Nativity, I warmly greet you all: from East to West, from North to South—in Ukraine and abroad, on all the continents of the world. In a special way, I unite myself to those who are sad or feel lonely, to all who labour far from home and precisely in this moment experience the absence of their loved ones and miss the warmth of the family home. I express my condolences to those families for whom this year it is painful to sit at Christmas Eve supper, when at the table there is an empty seat, not long ago occupied by a father or mother, husband or wife, brother or sister, son or daughter. With tearful eyes be joyful in the faith that today your loved ones are celebrating in heaven. I share my Christmas joy with our elderly—grandmothers and grandfathers, and also with the needy. I sincerely greet our soldiers on the front line—our pride. My thoughts fly to our prisoners of war and those held captive: in conveying my Christmas greeting I encourage you to not lose spirit, for our Lord God Himself believes in you. I greet our children and youth—our future, and wish that today your smile not leave your face, and that your joy be full.

"Although today the circumstances of a spreading virus at times require us to cover with protective masks our mouths and noses, but in God's name, let us not close off our hearts to others! Let others see joy, love, and goodness in our eyes! Indeed, in the midst of the challenges and trials of the pandemic, let us be heralds of Divine good will."

From the bottom of my heart, I wish all of you the authentic joy of the children of God, a tasty kutia, a cheerful celebration of Christ's Nativity, and a happy, peaceful, and blessed New Year!

The Marriage Box

Every week, we will pull two new tips out of our box. (We have about 20 or so.) Try to follow each tip throughout the week and see what comes of it. If you and your spouse have any extra tips, let us know and we'll add them!

5. Encourage your spouse. When my wife tells me she appreciates something I did, even if it was small, it makes my day. There's nothing like a well-timed note of encouragement, or spoken words of appreciation. It's been said that we should provide five times the encouragement that we do of criticism or correction. Work on upgrading the ratio in your relationship.

6. Wives, tell your husbands what you want. He can't read your mind.

CAROLLERS TO YOUR HOME – UNDER YOUR WINDOW?

(Remember the scene in the 1962 Taras Bulba movie where the seminarians carol under the balcony of the nobility? Well,,,, you might have the same experience... A group of carolers from various parishes in the Winnipeg will be going out on Monday (December 27) to share the joy of Christmas and to carry on a wonderful tradition. Due to covid they will remain outdoors and carol at the front entrance. Donations are accepted but not required and will be given to the parish of your choosing. To invite them, call Ivas' Zulyniak: 204 805-1151. З Різдвом Христовим!!

Please pray for the sick and shut-in members of our Blessed Virgin Mary parish family, and be in touch with them when you can.

"O God Our Father, We ask You to restore to physical health those of our parishioners who are weakened with illness, give peace of mind to those troubled with worry and comfort to those discouraged with problems. Help them find in them the days of their strength, a faith and trust in You and a love for one another to guide them through any health challenges or troubles they may face. Amen."

The Knights of Columbus brought around a "Keep Christ in Christmas" float to our church last Saturday afternoon. During the half hour that they stayed, several families and individuals from our BVM Parish came out to sing and make donations of food for charity! God bless the Knights for this project (they visited about 10 parishes throughout the city that day)

FLAME FROM BETHLEHEM!

We received last minute notice of this this year, but we want to share it with all parishioners that would like...

The Ukrainian scout organization PLAST has joined scouting organizations from Austria and around the world to bring a flame from the place where Jesus was born in Bethlehem to people of good will throughout the world! Even this year when travel is so complicated, they have managed to bring us a link not only to the Archeparchy, but right to our parish (Thursday morning). We have lit several candles in our church from the candle we received and the flame will be used on Christmas eve. A lamp will be placed on the tetrapod with the flame and those who would like may bring a lamp or candle and transport the flame to their homes this Christmas.

Dear Parishioners:

Christ is born! Glorify Him! Христос Рождается! Славите Його!

With this greeting and response we will joyfully greet each other for the next (almost) 40 days as we celebrate and declare the news of the coming of the Christ at the same time! We have fasted (hopefully to some degree) as we contemplated the great mystery of God's plan of salvation and prepared ourselves to welcome the newborn Christ into our lives all over again. Now we celebrate and continue the amazing journey of our faith throughout the year. One of the aspects of the enchanting mystery of Christmas is why God chose to have his only-begotten Son to be born in utter poverty in the cold of the night in a makeshift shelter for animals in a half-cave. After enjoying our Christmas meal and as we sit back to think, and/or enjoy the company of family, let's not only talk about the last game or politics or that topic that we have been talking about for the last two years. Let's talk about what Christmas is all about. If no one else is in the house with us, let's call someone or go on Skype and chat with someone and, again, in the course of our conversation let's ask the question: "What's this Christmas all about?" No, really... why Mary and why Joseph? Why the hardships? Why the rejection at the inn and why a most stark setting for God to be born into the world? The God Who created the heavens and the earth, and willed that each and every one of us would "be", chose to be born into this world as one of us, because of His love for each of us ... that we would not miss out on the joy and Glory that He wanted for us from the beginning (and we were hopelessly making a mess of it and losing it). What's that all about? What does that mean for you? What does that mean to me and my life? We seldom speak of such things. Let's make this Christmas the time that we not just talk about "stuff", but the things (the only things) that really matter at the end of the day. Father Michael
