10th Sunday after Pentecost

August 14, 2022

10-а Неділя по Зіс. Св. Духа

Слава Ісусу Христу! Glory to Jesus Christ!

Well, here we are not only half way through summer, but half way through the last month of summer! Now, I don't want to alarm anyone (especially students - as I remember the feeling from my younger days), but I just want us to face this reality and make the best of it. A little thought and planning and work as to how best to use these next weeks will go a long way.

First of all, if we are not outside at this moment, let's at least go to a window and look out at the sky and nature and whatever we can see and thank the Lord that He has given all this for us to enjoy!. Then let us think if we are ready for the beginning of the new Church Year (which begins September 1st) (and the School Year which begins about the same time). What do we need to get ready?...make a basic layout?...contact a few people?...select a date, time and place for the first event and maybe make a calendar of dates for other events throughout the Church year? Decide now that we will get as many people and NEW people involved as possible. An underlying goal will be to strive to pass leadership 'bulavas' and responsibility roles - as soon as reasonably possible - to other people. Just spending some time on this already puts us ahead of the game to avoid the mad rush at the beginning of September.

Now for our salvation goals -- the most important thing: Let's make plans to "psych ourselves up" over the next couple of weeks for a great year ahead. As a Ukrainian Catholic, I want to explore and live my faith and the mandate of the our Lord to the full! I can start asking for God's Grace - through prayer - that I and my household/family will have a whole new attitude come September: in-person participation for Sunday Liturgy... getting involved with one of the organizations or groups in the parish... not just lamenting about what's missing, but talking with my pastor about my dreams and seeing if we can't get something going... spending more time in the presence of God in the beauty of my parish church (as opposed to rushing in and exiting within nanoseconds of the beginning and end of the service)... In other words, let's strive for an attitude shift in how we view Christ's Church, our Parish and our personal role in both of those living realities. BUT, yes, in the meantime let's MAKE time to smell the roses, go for a walk, have lunch/supper outside, turn off those addictive screens and spend real time with real people, especially those people who really need us -- whether or not they know it or would admit it -- and enjoy real life, not the manufactured or even fake life of the media.

And finally - let's join our entire Archeparchy this coming weekend at Cooks Creek - especially for the Sunday Eucharistic Liturgy! God bless you! - Fr. Michael

Parish News:

- Tomorrow is a beautiful feastday of Our Lady: the Dormition (УСПЕННЯ). Please come to one of the two Divine Liturgies, and don't forget to bring a sprig or bouquet of your garden flowers to bless. (One of the pious traditions of our people has us drying out these flowers and keeping them to put later in the coffin under the head of a family member who has died. The reasoning is that Our Lady, who so loves us and wants to take us to heaven, will look down kindly upon the soul who now reposes on the flowers blessed in her honour, and will take him/her swiftly into heaven.)
- Only ONE Divine Liturgy will be celebrated in our church at 9 AM next week (Cooks Creek Archeparchial Pilgrimage weekend). This will give people time to attend, plus go to the Cooks Creek D.L. at 11:30 AM. (See pilgrimage schedule elsewhere in this bulletin.)
- Catechism registration will be Sunday, September 11 (Sunday after Labour Day), and classes will start probably that same Sunday (9:00 to 9:55) However, this is tentative: parents are still being surveyed re preference for in-person classes, or in the evenings via Zoom. If your children have not attended catechism here yet, but plan to do so this year, please let us know your preference soon! If you are willing to help as a catechist or catechetical assistant on Sunday mornings, please advise Teresa Hryndzio as soon as possible.
- Parish group leaders (Men's Club, UCWL, catechism, youth) are asked to put together a general schedule for the year in advance and send it to the parish office by Sept. 11 so that we can make it available to all, and that we can plan activities better.
- Congratulations to proud parents Jaime and Kristi-Marie, grandparents and extended family (Guzda and Lorenzo) of baby Minka-Fina Lorenzo who is baptized today and becomes a child of God.
- Sincere condolences and promises of continued prayer to the families and friends of Ryan Bourget (nephew of Don Kuryk) who has just passed away. Вічна йому пам'ять.

From A Hundred Amazing Reasons why we need to spend time in Adoration before Our Lord!

39. Devotion to the Eucharist is the most noble, because it has God as its object; it is the most profitable for salvation, because it gives us the Author of Grace. St. Pope Pius X

40. The devotion which God sends to the succor of His Church and of the nations at the present time is the devotion to the Holy Eucharist. It is the highest of all devotions. Pope Leo XIII

41. We are not called to great penances. The Holy Hour is a (do-able) sacrifice in union with Christ. Archbishop Fulton Sheen

When you're off camping and enjoying your vacation, please remember to attend Divine Liturgy/Mass on Sundays -- and even on weekdays! We have the spare time -- let's give some of it back to the Lord!

I overheard once a rather precocious schoolchild I knew say thoughtfully to his mother: "Hmm... if stingy means you give just a little bit... and generous means you give a lot... then, Mom, that's the same for church, right? Going for one hour on Sunday is kind of being stingy to God. So that's why Baba goes more! Good thing we don't have a stingy Baba!" We all laughed.

So let's keep an eye on masstimes.org as we travel, to make sure we get to Divine Liturgy on time no matter where we are. (Our parish is on masstimes.org, too.)
